Gov. Brown Reiterates His Charge that Mr. Johnson Favored Funding.

Haywood County Will Wipe Out Her Radical Majority Next Tuesday.

Brownsville, Tenn., Oct. 29.-Gov. Brown spoke here to-day, at Lee Hall, to a large and intelligent crowd. His speech was enthusiastically received. He repelled the charge made against him by Johnson, Maynard, Ed. Shaw & Co., in the most emphatic terms. He charged Andrew Johnson with advising the Hon, W. R. Robertson, State Senator, and Hon. John R. Bond, floater, to vote for the funding bill, Bond and Robertson both authorized Gov. Brown to make this statement. He also arraigned Maynard with favoring the funding bill and of advising Judge House, a Radical bill. Gov. Brown's defense of himself and administration made many friends here. It appears the family of Mrs. Wyan own lot in that cemetery in which they desired to bury her, but after preparations eported resolutions recommending that the for the burial had been made, Wynn was notified by Father O'Reilly that he would oppose it. The remains were deposited emporarily in a vault in the Forest ceme tery, where they now are, and Wynn applied for an injunction to prevent intererence with the interment. Father O'Reilly, in answer, set forth hat the cemetery is under the control of the Bishop of the Diocese of Cleveland, and the rules of the Catholic Church make it obligatory on the Bishop or his representative not to permit to be buried there persons of whom full proof of membership is not furnished, and that they died in full communion. Mrs. Wynn, for many years prior to her decease, ceased to be a member of the Roman Catholic Church, and died out of communion. Decision reserved.

Four witnesses for the prosecution were examined before adjournment for the day. Ben Patten testified that, on the night of April 24, between midnight and day he was roused from sleep by voices calling to him from the outside to come out; he refused to obey, when two doors to his chamber were simultaneously broken open and a number of men entered disguised, having on long gowns and having their faces covered with white cloth with holes for the eyes. etc.; by threatening to kill him, they compelled him to go out some distance from the house where he was laid across a log and whipped. He recognized several of the parties by their voices, shapes, etc., and identified them as the accused at the bar. Aleck Patten testified that he was a son of Benj. GREAT UNION PILLS! WIDOW BRITTLE SAYS: THAT TWENTY-NINE YEARS AGO SHE WAS CONFINED WIDOW BRITTLE SAYS: THAT TWENTY-NINE YEARS AGO SHE WAS CONFINED by a spell of sickness for two months, during which time an enlargement of the tiver came on, which showed itself, in a roll, upon the side as large as her wrist. She had the services of Dr. Dickinson, and the most distinguished physicians. But, with their aid, and all the means at her command, for thirteen years, instead of growing better she green words.

At the end of this period, when she was suffering greatly with soreness and pain in the region of the liver, and was greatly prostrated, with no hopes of living but a short time, without relief, her brother, W. C. McMurry, gave her the "Great Union," or "Arnold Pills." She took one every other night for three nights; then missing three took them again as before, but afterwards less fragmently.

In about twelve months the enlargement was removed, and she was cured by the Pills, without the use of any other remedy.

The above statement is true.
